

DISASTER RELIEF

Dress Code

Revision: January 18, 2021

All volunteers must dress in a manner that is conservative, modest, and honoring to our Lord.

WORK HOURS

- Long pants: no spandex, spunks, or shorts. Any exceptions must be approved by the onsite Unit Leader or Incident Commander.
- TBM shirts: yellow or blue t-shirts, denim, postal blue, yellow, or other shirts (short or long sleeves) purchased from TBM are preferred. However, any shirt may be worn with the exception of tank tops, sleeveless shirts, or any shirt with wording or logos that are not conservative, modest, and honoring to our Lord.
- TBM Cap, hat or visor are preferred. However, any cap may be worn except those with wording or logos that are not conservative, modest, and honoring to our Lord.
- TBM DR badge.
- Safety and personal gear as required/approved by Unit Leader.
- All footwear must meet the approval of the Unit Leader.

AFTER HOURS

Whether volunteers are staying in a church or other facility they must at all times maintain the decorum of glorifying our Savior. Particularly in a church, volunteers must be respectful of the church's worship schedules and activities. Volunteers must dress modestly at all times, being particularly cautious going to and from the shower and restroom facilities. Do NOT walk-through church services or meetings or come to meals in clothing not approved by the dress code as follows:

- Shirts must be worn at all times.
- Do not wear see-through or revealing clothing.
- During sleeping hours when moving about, wear robes, housecoats, or t-shirts and shorts meeting the "finger-tip" rule for shorts. (The fingertip rule this means shorts must fall below the fingertips of the wearer when the arms are at their side)
- Casual footwear including sandals/flip flops are acceptable in the facilities unless otherwise indicated by TBM.

Failure to comply with wearing appropriate attire as outlined above is grounds for sending a volunteer home.
